SCHEDULE II.

Agreement.

Individuals(r).

In consideration of the Rehabilitation Finance Administration (a Corporation constituted under the Rehabilitation Finance Administration Act, 1948, (Act XII of 1948) hereinafter referred to as the Administration which expression shall unless repugnant to the subject or context include its successors and assigns, having agreed to grant to formerly resident of Mouza Thana District in Western/Eastern Pakistan, and now resident of Mouza Thana District State in India, a loan of Rs. (Rupees only), I the afore-named son of (hereinafter called the Borrower which expression shall unless repugnant to the subject or context include his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns) execute this agreement in favour of the Administration and hereby agree and undertake as follows :—

1. That the afore-mentioned loan of Rs. will at the discretion of the Administration be advanced to the Borrower in one lump sum or in two or more instalments. If the Borrower shall during the continuance of this Agreement repay to the Administration any part of the advances made to him by the Administration and if thereafter further advances shall be made by the Administration to the Borrower, such further advances shall be deemed to be part of the afore-mentioned loan of Rs. and be included in the security of the Administration for all purposes to the intent that the provisions of this Agreement and the security given to the Administration by THESE PRESENTS shall extend to all moneys which shall, for the time being, be owing or remaining unpaid to the Administration on any account between the Borrower and the Administration and the interest thereon, and all charges in respect thereof, and so that such security shall be a continuing security for the payment by the Borrower to the Administration of all such moneys and all interest, and other charges in respect thereof.

2. That the Borrower shall not utilise this loan or any part thereof for any purpose other than financing his business/industry which is being /will be carried on at or at such other place or places as may hereafter be approved by the Administration under the name and style of or under such other name and style as may hereafter be approved by the Administration.

3. That the loan shall carry interest at six per cent. per annum on the balance outstanding from day to day, such interest being payable until the whole of the loan is repaid to the Administration.

4. That the principal amount of the loan shall be repaid by the Borrower in monthly/quarterly/yearly instalments of Rs. (Rupees only) each, the first instalment falling due on and with each instalment of the principal the interest accrued on the outstanding balance of the loan shall also be paid. The instalments stated above shall be continued to be paid in the same manner, notwithstanding any advances made by the Administration to the Borrower after the payment of any of the instalments, as provided in clause 1 above. In case the Borrower shall commit default in the repayment of any instalment or of the interest payable along with any instalment, then and in such case the whole of the amount then due by the Borrower including all interest shall at the option of the Administration forthwith become payable to the Administration.

5. That repayment of the loan shall be made by the Borrower in equated, monthly/quarterly/yearly instalments of principal and interest, the amount of each instalment being Rs. (Rupees only) and the first instalment falling due on; provided, however, that any difference in the calculation of the total amount of interest shall be adjusted at the time of the payment of the last instalment. In case the Borrower shall commit default in the repayment of any equated instalment, then and in such case the whole of the amount then due by the Borrower including all interest shall at the option of the Administration forthwith become payable to the Administration.

6. That all repayments mentioned in the clause immediately preceding shall be made by the Borrower by tendering the amounts at the New Delhi or Branch of the Imperial Bank of India for credit of the account of the Administration with that branch.

7. That notwithstanding the stipulation regarding repayment by periodical instalments contained in clause 4 hereof the Borrower may repay the whole amount of the loan or a portion thereof or interest thereon at any time before the date on which the loan or any instalment thereof falls due for repayment.

8. That any time allowed by the Administration for the repayment of any instalment or any interest or any other concession given by the Administration shall not entitle the Borrower to ask for any further time or any similar concession in respect of the further instalments payable by him.

9. That so long as the loan or any portion thereof or interest accrued thereon shall remain unpaid including any further advances which may have been made by the Administration as provided in clause 1 hereof the business/industry mentioned in clause 2 above and the assets created from the amount of the loan shall remain mortgaged to the Administration for the repayment of the loan including such further advances together with the interest thereon and the amount of the loan outstanding from time to time and the interest accruing thereon shall be a first charge on such business/industry and such assets.

10. That so long as the loan or any portion thereof or interest accrued thereon shall remain unpaid including any further advances which may have been made by the Administration as provided in clause 1 hereof the business/industry mentioned in clause 2 above and the assets created from the amount of the loan as described in the schedule to this Agreement shall remain mortgaged to the Administration for the repayment of the loan including such further advances together with the interest thereon and the amount of the loan outstanding from time to time and the interest accruing thereon shall be a first charge on such business/industry and such assets.

11. That in case the Borrower receive any pecuniary or other compensation in respect of his property movable or immovable which he has left or lost in Western/Eastern Pakistan, he shall inform the Administration of his having received such compensation and, if so desired by the Administration, he shall (i) if the compensation received is a pecuniary compensation, pay the same to the Administration in repayment of the loan and the interest thereon notwithstanding that he may have paid all the instalments payable till then to the Administration as provided in clause 4 above and notwithstanding any other thing contained in the said clause and (ii) if the compensation is in any other form, make it over or pledge mortgage hypothecate or assign the same to the Administration as further security for this loan or such portion thereof as may be outstanding at that time.

12. That the Borrower shall not, without the prior approval of the Administration in writing, close down his business/industry or, subject to the provisions of clause 2, move it from the place stated in the said clause to another place or change the name or style of the business/industry from that given in the said clause, nor shall he assign, mortgage, charge, lease or otherwise transfer the business/industry or the assets created from the loan to any person without the previous consent in writing of the Administration.

13. That the Borrower or any of his dependents shall not ask or receive any further financial assistance for business/industry from a State Government or any organisation or body set up by a State Government for assistance to or rehabilitation of displaced persons.

14. That the Chief Administrator or an Inspector or Assistant Inspector or Sub Inspector of the Administration or any other officer of the Administration authorised in writing by the Chief Administrator in this behalf may at any time and from time to time inspect the premises of the Borrower where the business/industry is carried on any may examine and take extracts from any or all of the books, documents and accounts relating to the business/industry and in the event of such inspection the Borrower shall provide all facilities therefor. It shall also be lawful for the Administration to keep at the expense of the Borrower a person authorised in writing by the Chief Administrator on such premises for the purpose of keeping a watch on the conduct of the business/industry and otherwise for the security of the Administration and the Borrower shall provide all facilities in this behalf.

15. That the Borrower shall comply with any order issued to him by the Chief Administrator or any other Officer authorised by him in writing in this behalf requiring the Borrower to furnish such information or to produce such books of accounts or documents for inspection at such time and place as may be specified in the order.

16. That at least per cent. of the total number of persons employed by the Borrower in his business/industry mentioned in clause 2 hereof shall be persons who have been displaced from Western or Eastern Pakistan on account of civil disturbances or fear of such disturbances.

17. That if there is any breach on the part of the Borrower of any of the terms of this Agreement, or if it appears to the Administration that information on any material point was suppressed or false or misleading information on any material point was given by the Borrower at the time of obtaining the loan or at the time of an inspection in terms of clause 19 hereof or in complying with an order under clause 13 hereof, or if there is a reasonable apprehension that the Borrower is unable to pay the debts or that insolvency proceedings may be commenced against him or if for any other reason it appears necessary to the Administration to protect its interests by calling up the loan, the Administration may, notwithstanding anything to the contrary said in this Agreement, order the Borrower to repay in full forthwith the outstanding amount of the loan and interest.

18. That in the event of the failure of the Borrower to pay up the amount of the loan or any part thereof remaining payable by him or the interest thereon either pursuant to an order issued under the preceding clause or on the moneys becoming repayable by the Borrower otherwise, it shall be lawful for the Administration without prejudice to any other remedy provided by law to recover the outstanding amount or overdue instalment of the loan and interest thereon as arrears of land revenue. It shall also be lawful for the Administration in such case to sell off the business/industry of the borrower mentioned in clause 2 above and any assets created from the amount of the loan at the risk and on account of the Borrower and either by public auction or by private contract and subject to such terms and conditions as the Administration may think fit, and utilise the sale proceeds in or towards repayment of the monies payable by the Borrower to the Administration including all costs, charges and expenses. In such an event it shall further be lawful for the Administration to take charge of the business/industry of the Borrower and run the same at the risk and on account of the Borrower through its own officers or nominees with or without the assistance of the Borrower on such terms and conditions as it may deem fit. The Borrower shall not interfere with the management and administration of the business/industry by the Administration pursuant to this clause but shall, on the other hand, give all assistance to the Administration in the conduct and management thereof nor shall the Borrower make any claim against the Administration by reason of the exercise of the powers of the Administration under this clause. It shall also be lawful for the Administration to sell off the business/industry and/or the assets as aforesaid after conducting the business/industry for some time as mentioned above. If as a result of the exercise of the powers of the Administration under this clause, any surplus is left after satisfaction of all the claims of the Administration against the Borrower including all costs, charges and expenses, then such surplus shall be paid to the Borrower.

19. That the Borrower shall, if so required by the Administration, at any time from time to time, insure in the joint names of the Borrower and the Administration in some Insurance Company or Companies approved by the Administration and to such extent as may be required by the Administration all or any of the assets mortgaged under this Agreement against fire and also, if so required by the Administration, against riot and civil commotion, risks including fire arising therefrom and such other risks as the Administration may consider necessary and shall deliver the Insurance Policy or Policies to the Administration; Provided that if the Borrower shall fail to effect such insurance as aforesaid to the satisfaction of the Administration or to deliver the Policy or Policies therefor to the Administration, the Administration shall be entitled to effect such insurance at the expense of the Borrower either in the joint names of the Borrower and the Administration or in the name of the Administration alone. The Borrower expressly agrees that the Administration shall be entitled to adjust, settle or compromise any dispute between the Insurance Company and the insured arising under or in connection with any such Policy and such adjustment, settlement or compromise shall be valid and binding on the Borrower. The Borrower further agrees that the Administration shall be entitled to receive all monies payable under any such Policy and to give a valid receipt therefor and to credit the amount so received to the Loan account of the Borrower and the Borrower shall not be entitled to raise any question that a larger sum might or ought to have been received or to dispute his liability for the balance remaining due on such account after such credit.

AGREEMENT

Firms(r).

In consideration of the Rehabilitation Finance Administration (a Corporation constituted under the Rehabilitation Finance Administration Act, 1948, Act XII of 1948) hereinafter referred to as the Administration, which expression shall unless repugnant to the subject or context include its successors and assigns, having agreed to grant to Messrs. of, hereinafter called the Borrowers a loan of Rs. (Rupees only), the Borrowers execute this Agreement in favour of the Administration and hereby agree and undertake as follows :—

1. That the afore-mentioned loan of Rs. will at the discretion of the Administration be advances to the Borrowers in one lump sum or in two or more instalments. If the Borrowers shall during the continuance of this Agreement repay to the Administration any part of the advances made to them by the Administration and if thereafter further advances shall be made by the Administration to the Borrower, such further advances shall be deemed to be part of the afore-mentioned loan of Rs. and be included in the security of the Administration for all purposes to the intent that the provisions of this Agreement and the security given to the Administration by THESE PRESENTS shall extend to all moneys which shall, for the time being, be owing or remaining unpaid to the Administration on any account between the Borrowers and the Administration and the interest thereon, and all charges in respect thereof, and so that such security shall be a continuing security for the payment by the Borrowers to the Administration of all such moneys and all interest, and other charges in respect thereof.

2. That the Borrowers shall not utilise this loan or any part thereof for any purpose other than financing their business/industry which is being/will be carried on at or at such other place or places as may hereafter be approved by the Administration under the name and style of or under such other name and style as may hereafter be approved by the Administration.

3. That the loan shall carry interest at six per cent. per annum on the balance outstanding from day to day, such interest being payable until the whole of the loan is repaid to the Administration.

4. That the principal amount of the loan shall be repaid by the Borrowers in monthly/quarterly/yearly instalments of Rs. (Rupees only), each, the first instalment falling due on and with each instalment of the principal the interest accrued on the outstanding balance of the loan shall also be paid. The instalments stated above shall be continued to be paid in the same manner, notwithstanding any advances made by the Administration to the Borrowers after the payment of any of the instalments, as provided in clause 1 above. In case the Borrowers shall commit default in the repayment of any instalment or of the interest payable along with any instalment, then and in such case the whole of the amount then due by the Borrowers including all interest shall at the option of the Administration forthwith become payable to the Administration.

5. That repayment of the loan shall be made by the Borrowers in equated, monthly/quarterly/yearly instalments of principal and interest, the amount of each instalment being Rs. (Rupees only) and the first instalment falling due on; provided, however, that any difference in the calculation of the total amount of interest shall be adjusted at the time of the payment of the last instalment. In case the Borrowers shall commit default in the repayment of any equated instalment, then and in such case the whole of the amount then due by the Borrowers including all interest shall at the option of the Administration forthwith become payable to the Administration.

6. That all repayments mentioned in the clause immediately preceding shall be made by the Borrowers by tendering the amounts at the New Delhi or branch of the Imperial Bank of India for credit of the account of the Administration with that branch.

7. That notwithstanding the stipulation regarding repayment by periodical instalments contained in clause 4 hereof the Borrowers may repay the whole amount of the loan or a portion thereof or interest thereon at any time before the date on which the loan or any instalment thereof falls due for repayment.

8. That any time allowed by the Administration for the repayment of any instalment or any interest or any other concession given by the Administration shall not entitle the Borrowers to ask for any further time or any similar concession in respect of the further instalments payable by the Borrowers.

9. That so long as the loan or any portion thereof or interest accrued thereon shall remain unpaid including any further advances which may have been made by the Administration as provided in clause 1 hereof of business/industry mentioned in clause 2 above and the assets created from the amount of the loan shall remain mortgaged to the Administration for the repayment of the loan including such further advances together with the interest thereon and the amount of the loan outstanding from time to time and the interest accruing thereon shall be a first charge on such business/industry and such assets.

10. That so long as the loan or any portion thereof or interest accrued thereon shall remain unpaid including any further advances which may have been made by the Administration as provided in clause 1 hereof of the business/industry mentioned in clause 2 above and the assets created from the amount of the loan as described in the schedule to this Agreement shall remain mortgaged to the Administration for the repayment of the loan including such further advances together with the interest thereon and the amount of the loan outstanding from time to time and the interest accruing thereon shall be a first charge on such business/industry and such assets.

11. That in case the Borrowers or any of the members of their firm/family receive any pecuniary or other compensation in respect of the property movable or immovable left or lost in Western/Eastern Pakistan, they shall inform the Administration of their having received such compensation; and if so desired by the Administration they shall (i) if the compensation received is a pecuniary compensation, pay the same to the Administration in repayment of the loan and the interest thereon notwithstanding that the Borrowers may have paid all the instalments payable till then to the Administration as provided in clause 4 above and notwithstanding any other thing contained in the said clause, and (ii) if the compensation is in any other form, make it over or pledge, mortgage, hypothecate or assign the same to the Administration as further security for this loan or such portion thereof as may be outstanding at that time.

12. That the Borrowers shall not, without the prior approval of the Administration in writing, close down their business/industry or, subject to the provisions of clause 2, move it from the place stated in the said clause to another place or change the name or style of the business/industry from that given in the said clause, nor shall they assign, mortgage, charge, lease or otherwise transfer the business/industry of the assets created from the loan to any person without the previous consent in writing of the Administration.

13. That the Borrowers shall not ask or receive any further financial assistance for business/industry from a State Government or any organisation or body set up by a State Government for assistance to or rehabilitation of displaced persons.

14. That the Chief Administrator or an Inspector or Assistant Inspector or Sub-Inspector of the Administration or any other officer of the Administration authorised in writing by the Chief Administrator in this behalf may at any time and from time to time inspect the premises of the Borrowers where the business/industry is carried on and may examine and take extracts from any or all of the books, documents and accounts relating to the business/industry and in the event of such inspection the Borrowers shall provide all facilities therefor. It shall also be lawful for the Administration to keep at the expense of the Borrowers a person authorised in writing by the Chief Administrator on such premises for the purpose of keeping a watch on the conduct of the business/industry and otherwise for the security of the Administration and the Borrowers shall provide all facilities in this behalf.

15. That the Borrowers shall comply with any order issued to them by the Chief Administrator or any other Officer authorised by him in writing in this behalf requiring the Borrowers to furnish such information or to produce such books of accounts or documents for inspection at such time and place as may be specified in the order.

16. That at least per cent. of the total number of persons employed by the Borrowers in their business/industry mentioned in clause 2 hereof shall be persons who have been displaced from Western or Eastern Pakistan on account of civil disturbances or fear of such disturbances.

17. That if there is any breach on the part of the Borrowers of any of the terms of this agreement, or if it appears to the Administration that information on any material point was suppressed or false or misleading information on any material point was given by the Borrowers at the time of obtaining the loan or at the time of an inspection in terms of clause 12 hereof or in complying with an order under clause 13 hereof, or if there is a reasonable apprehension that the Borrowers are unable to pay their debts or that insolvency proceedings may be commenced against them, or if for any other reason it appears necessary to the Administration to protect its interests by calling up the loan, the Administration may, notwithstanding anything to the contrary said in this Agreement, order the Borrowers to repay in full forthwith the outstanding amount of the loan and interest.

18. That in the event of the failure of the Borrowers to pay up the amount of the loan or any part thereof remaining payable by them or the interest thereon either pursuant to an order issued under the preceding clause or on the moneys becoming repayable by the Borrowers otherwise, it shall be lawful for the Administration without prejudice to any other remedy provided by law to recover the outstanding amount or overdue instalment of the loan and interest thereon as arrears of land revenue. It shall also be lawful for the Administration in such case to sell off the business/industry of the Borrowers mentioned in clause 2 above and any assets created from the amount of the loan at the risk and on account of the Borrowers and either by public auction or by private contract and subject to such terms and conditions as the Administration may think fit, and utilise the sale proceeds in or towards repayment of the moneys payable by the Borrowers to the Administration including all posts, charges and expenses. In such an event it shall further be lawful for the Administration to take charge of the business/industry of the Borrowers and run the same at the risk and on account of the Borrowers through its own officers or nominees with or without the assistance of the Borrowers on such terms and conditions as it may deem fit. The Borrowers shall not interfere with the management and administration of the business/industry by the Administration pursuant to this clause but shall, on the other hand, give all assistance to the Administration in the conduct and management thereof nor shall the Borrowers make any claim against the Administration by reason of the exercise of the powers of the Administration under this clause. It shall also be lawful for the Administration to sell off the business/industry and/or the assets as aforesaid after conducting the business/industry for some time as mentioned above. If as a result of the exercise of the powers of the Administration under this clause, any surplus is left after satisfaction of all the claims of the Administration against the Borrowers including all costs, charges and expenses, then such surplus shall be paid to the Borrowers.

19. That the Borrowers shall, if so required by the Administration, at any time and from time to time, insure in the joint names of the Borrowers and the Administration in some Insurance Company or Companies approved by the Administration and to such extent as may be required by the Administration all or any of the assets mortgaged under this Agreement against fire and also, if so, required by the Administration, against riot and civil commotion; risks including fire arising therefrom and such other risks as the Administration may consider necessary and shall deliver the Insurance Policy or Policies to the Administration; provided that if the Borrowers shall fail to effect such insurance as aforesaid to the satisfaction of the Administration or to deliver the Policy or Policies therefor to the Administration the Administration shall be entitled to effect such insurance at the expense of the Borrowers either in the joint names of the Borrowers and the Administration or in the name of the Administration alone. The Borrowers expressly agree that the Administration shall be entitled to adjust, settle or compromise any dispute between the Insurance Company and the insured arising under or in connection with any such Policy and such adjustment, settlement or compromise shall be valid and binding on the Borrowers. The Borrowers further agree that the Administration shall be entitled to receive all monies payable under any such Policy and to give a valid receipt therefor and to credit the amount so received to the Loan account of the Borrowers and the Borrowers shall not be entitled to raise any question that a larger sum might or ought to have been received or to dispute their liability for the balance remaining due on such account after such credit.

20. That all members from time to time of the firm named in the opening part of this Agreement shall be bound hereby jointly and severally notwithstanding any changes in the constitution or style thereof and even if the so-called firm be reduced to one individual at any time and the expression "Borrowers" shall unless repugnant to the subject or context include the partners for the time being of the said firm and their respective heirs, executors, and administrators and their or his assigns and that any notice served on one member of the firm shall be deemed to be service of such notice on all members of the firm.

21. That the Borrowers form a joint and undivided Hindu family. The members for the time being of the said family shall be jointly and severally bound by this Agreement notwithstanding any change in the constitution of the family or the name or style of the family firm, and the expression "Borrowers" shall, unless repugnant to the subject or context, include the members for the time being of the said family and their respective heirs, executors and administrators and the survivors or survivor of the members and the heirs, executors and administrators of the last survivor and their or his assigns and further that any notice served on any one member of the family shall be deemed to be service of such notice on all the members thereof.
